Chapter 1 by Ankush Singh

Chapter 1 - Thrown into the Ravine of Death

Aww! Those rotten (BEEP) threw me from the cliff into a very deep ravine. I was near to my death my whole life flashed before my eyes and the day all this began, and the cause of this happening to me.

My story begins in the afternoon of June; even after that there was a cold breeze with the sun enclosed by the clouds, it was a very strange day. My daughter Anna was out playing with her friends in the park, I was preparing for her snacks. When she returned the first thing she asked for, was snacks and I knew it. At the dining table, she was telling me about her frolic playing, while eating her snacks. And then a sudden silence was there and she asked me in a soft curious way that when is dad going to come back? I stopped and changing the topic I asked her that would she like more snacks, and I went in the kitchen. Jon is my husband's nickname, Jon is way on a business trip, this is what I told Anna but this is not true.
